

Barry Lawrence Ruderman Antique Maps Inc.

7407 La Jolla Boulevard
La Jolla, CA 92037

www.raremaps.com

(858) 551-8500
blr@raremaps.com

A 3 Way Vacation through America's Scenic Wonders on the Upper Mississippi

Stock#: 77969
Map Maker: The Streckfus Steamboat Line
Date: 1930 circa Place: St. Louis
Color: Color
Condition: VG
Size: 9.25 x 31.5 inches
Price: SOLD

Description:

Attractive vintage view of the upper Mississippi River between St. Louis, Missouri, and Minneapolis, Minnesota. The map shows all the stops serviced by Streckfus Steamboats, a company that serviced the river between 1910 and 1978, with its most active period in the period immediately following the First World War.

Above and below the map are shown many views of the Mississippi, enticing possible passengers. The

Barry Lawrence Ruderman
Antique Maps Inc.

7407 La Jolla Boulevard
La Jolla, CA 92037

www.raremaps.com

(858) 551-8500
blr@raremaps.com

---

A 3 Way Vacation through America's Scenic Wonders on the Upper Mississippi

verso narrates potential journeys and advertises the amenities available on the steamers.

The St. Paul steamer, pictured on this map, was in commission between 1917 and the early 1930s, providing an age range for this map.

Detailed Condition:

Folding pamphlet. Printed recto-verso.