Description:

Nice example of the 1854 edition of this fine early map of Dakota Territory.

The map is based largely on the works of Nicollet and Pope, and includes extensive notes on early exploration and topography throughout.

An essential map for Minnesota and Dakota collectors. One of the earliest editions of the map, first issued in 1850, the year after Minnesota became a territory.

Massive Pembina and Dacotah counties in the west, with many Indian tribes, forts and early exploration notes shown.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color. Trimmed a bit close at the top edge.
