Description:

Nice example of this marvelous map, of Tallis's home country, showing the British Isles in great detail. As usual, the decorative vignettes on this map are striking, with two scenes of London shown, and a scene of Edinburgh and Dublin.

The map is colored in three colors for each of the main regions of the United Kingdom, as it was then subdivided. These regions are further subdivided into counties. An inset shows the Shetland Islands.

This map was engraved for R. Montgomery Martin's Illustrated Atlas. Tallis was one of the last great decorative map makers. His maps are prized for the wonderful vignettes of indigenous scenes, people, and other artifacts they portray.
