Description:

Scarce and highly detailed map of the Low Countries, published by Valk, father and son. Finely colored and expertly engraved, the map includes a high level of detail, locating towns, roads, rivers, lakes, islands, and other features of interest.

The map highlights cities of importance in red and shows forests and marshes pictorially. Detail extends from the Dollard Sea on the Dutch-German border to Bruges, in Belgium.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color in outline. Manuscript pencil underlining of important towns. Minor soiling in the North Sea.
