Description:

Decorative and highly detailed map of Germany, published in London by Emanuel Bowen in the mid-18th century for his A Complete System of Geography.

The map includes a high level of detail throughout the country, delimiting regional borders and naming rivers, cities, geographical features, and more. Detail on the map extends into Poland, Hungary, the Balkans, Italy, and France.

The map is highly decorative, in a style typical of Bowen. A humorous cartouche in the upper right shows a truly massive wine barrel, with a pastoral scene, and the map includes a compass rose in the upper left.
