Description:

Finely executed sea chart of the coast of the Low Countries and a bit of the opposite coast of England, published by the Depot de La Marine.

This would have been one of the best and most up-to-date coastal charts of the region published in the middle of the 18th Century.

The chart includes soundings, shoals, current directions and rhumb lines.

Includes a large inset chart showing the entrances to the Zuyder-Zee passing Texel and Flie Islands.
