Description:

Rare separately issued map issued to illustrate to a French audience the dispute which led to the Civil War, with the Free and Slave States separately colored. The map is also unique in the choice of borders, as the cartography remains early 1850s, pre-dating the Gadsden Purchase and with odd configurations for California, Kansas Territory, Nebraska Territory, New Mexico and Utah. A very rare map, for which we were only able to locate one dealer offering in the past 25 years. This example has been folded to a large 4to size, but is in generally excellent condition for a separately issued map of this period. Very rare and interesting.
