Description:

Fine early sea chart of the Mozambique Channel, published by the French Hydrographical Department.

Includes a detailed treatment of Madagascar and the contiguous coastline of Africa, from Swaziland to Somalia.

Includes 2 large inset maps of Port Secheyles.

This chart was produced by Jacques-Nicolas Bellin (1703-1772), France's preeminent maritime cartographer and the Premier Ingénieur of the Depot de la Marine (the French Hydrographical Office), as well as the Official Hydrographer of the King Louis XV, appearing in volume 2 of Bellin's Hydrographie Francoise, one of the most important compilations of Sea Charts published in the 18th Century.
