Description:

Striking map of Switzerland, showing the Helvetic nation in fine detail. This highly decorative map was originally published in London by Emanuel Bowen in the mid-18th century for his A Complete System of Geography.

The map is embellished with thirteen coats of arms placed on the cartouche and a compass rose. The coats of arms include those of the cantons of Schwyz, Uri, Appenzell, and Obwald. At the bottom is a map of Geneva, entitled A New Plan of the City of Geneva, with sixty-seven points of interest labeled.
