Description:

Fine and attractive original antique map of southern New England, showing the states of Massachusetts, Connecticut, and Rhode Island. This map was drawn and engraved by W. H. Gamble for Mitchell's New General Atlas, published in 1884, during the term of President Chester A. Arthur.

The map shows railroads, cities, towns, county lines, and more. Martha's Vineyard, Nantucket, and Dekes jut off of the Massachusetts coast. Part of the states of New York, Vermont, and New Hampshire can be seen. In all, the map is notable for its detail and bright colors used.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color.
