Description:

Fine, original, antique map of London as it stood during the Regency, showing fine, city block-level detail.

The map shows the West India Docks, the East India Docks, and other features in the Isle of Dogs and Canary Wharf. Southwark is developing further south, and Greenwich is shown. Westward, the map extends to Hyde Park, Regent's Park, Chelsea, and Kensington.

Below the map, an extensive listing of 350 streets in London is given. The map was published by Charles Smith on Surrey Street Stand in 1818.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand color. Dissected in twenty-one segments and mounted on original publisher's linen. Minor soiling and toning.
