Description:

Rare Wall Map Tracing Movements of Pioneer Mormons Before 1850

Detailed wall map of most of the United States, detailing the routes and encampments of the Mormon pioneers across the west, Zion's Camp (Joseph and Hyrum's respective divisions) and the Mormon Battalion, compiled by A. William Lund in Salt Lake City.

Lund's map meticulously marks the routes of the two groups by the dates during which each crossed the through the Transmississippi West. The map also locates early Mormon settlements in the west with the names of their founders.

At the bottom, an index provides additional information, including:

- The first baptism
- Dates and founding members of the Church
- Important places in the church, with short descriptions (Colesville, Carthage, Fayette, Far West, Harmony, Independence, Kirtland),
- The Missions, dates of their founding and their founders
- Mormon Newspapers with first date of publication
- List of languages of the Book of Mormon
- LDS Temples as of 1928
- List of Church Presidents
- The names of the members of the first fourteen companies to enter the Salt Lake Valley.

The map includes smaller inset maps of Wayne and Ontario counties, showing important locations in early Church history and an inset map of the Mormon Trail from Evanston to Salt Lake.

Rarity

This is the first time we have seen the map. OCLC locates 3 example (University of Utah, BYU and the LDS Church Library).

Detailed Condition:

Previously stored folded. Dampstaining and soiling at right, but generally a nice example.
