Description:

Nice example of Hartmann Schedel's incunable view of Venice from the Latin edition of Schedel's Liber Chronicum, perhaps the single most influential secular illustrated book of the 15th Century and one of the landmark printed works of the 15th Century.

Schedel's view of Venice is one of the earliest obtainable views of the City and realistically the only large format 15th Century illustration of the City available to collectors. The view is essentially a reduced size illustration of Venice adapted from the larger illustration of Venice in Breydenbach's Peregrinatio, which was illustrated by Dutch artist Erhard Reuwich, who was working in Mainz in the 1480s.
