Description:

Beautifully hand-colored example of Hartmann Schedel's incunabular view of Salzburg, Austria from Schedel's Liber Chronicum, perhaps the single most influential secular illustrated book of the 15th century.

The woodcut view shows the city divided by the Salzach River with a castle on one side and village on the right.

Schedel's view of Salzburg is one of the earliest obtainable views of the City and realistically the only large format 15th-century illustration available to collectors.
