Description:

Only Traced Example.

A fantastic example of this very rare American wall map of the Holy Land, published by the American Sunday School Union in Philadelphia in 1832.

Inset "Plan of Jerusalem" in the lower right corner notes four general quarters of the city. The key lists a further A-Z points of interest in the city.

As a kind of thing, 19th-century American wall maps of the Holy Land are not overwhelmingly rare, however, the present map embodies all of the best material qualities of 1820s-30s Philadelphia
