Description:

Finely hand-colored example of this beautiful antique sea chart of the coastlines of Southern Europe, by Pieter Goos. Published in De Zee-Atlas Ofte Water-Weereld.

This finely executed chart, oriented with east at the top of the map, extends from the Straits of Gibraltar in the south to Bretagne in the North, providing fine coastal details along the Bay of Biscay and the Iberian Peninsula. The chart is surmounted by a decorative cartouche and ornate coat of arms, with the French coat of arm in the upper left and multiple compass roses and sailing ships embellishing the seas.

Detailed Condition:
Trimmed close, particularly on the lower-right side. Small stain in the lower-right corner.
