Description:

Promoting Trade Between France & America

Fascinating map of the United States, outlining the different railroad routes available to French shippers at the beginning of the 20th Century.

The map was published to promote Lee, Higginson & Company, Bankers, and their agent, MM F. Dupont et M.H. Furlaud in Paris.

Includes a list of over 25 railroad companies, each color coded, with a list of products produced by the United States and the relative proportion of the supply to the supply of the entire world. For example, the US was then producing 83% of the World's Cotton and 77% of the World's Corn.
