Description:

Finely-executed World War II propaganda poster appealing to allied sympathy for the once-neutral Dutch, showing a blindfolded man stood up against a brick wall. With artwork by Ronay, this map was distributed by the Queen Wilhelmina Fund for Dutch War Relief.

Several posters from the Dutch War Relief series exist, which all portray the pain and suffering of the invaded peoples. These appear to be rarer than other, usually American-produced, appeals for increased donations and funds.
