Description:

Rare map of the South extending to the Plains from the rare first edition of Melish's Military & Topographical Atlas of the United States, engraved by Henry Tanner.

Melish produced the first edition of this atlas during the War of 1812. While it was issued again in 1815 with additional maps, this version is the only true war edition.

Includes towns, roads, distances, Indian settlements, French encampments in Missouri Territory, Spanish Cantonments, Indian Boundaries in Illinois & Indiana Territories, and other nice details. The is reminiscent of Melish's large US map of 1816.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color. Folding map professionally flattened and backed with archival tissue.
