Description:

Mapping The Democratic Republic of Latvia

Finely drafted Latvian-language map of Latvia, crediting A. Oschin and P. Mantnieks of the Riga Institute of Cartography, with place names by Professor Endzelina.

Includes a key identifying various map details, as well as statistical information at the top right, including geographical information, railroads, public education, commerce, monetary units, and borders.

The map was published several years after Latvia gained its independence (1920-21) and adopted a constitution (1922), but prior to the coup d'etat of Prime Minister Kārlis Ulmanis in 1934.

Detailed Condition:

Several fold splits and tears, expertly repaired on verso.
