Description:

Original antique map of the city of Cleveland, Ohio, published by Rand McNally in 1896. The map shows the city limits as they stood in the late 1800s, with fabulous detail on the city's streets, neighborhoods, and other features.

The map shows the course of the Cuyahoga River as it flows into Lake Erie. Greenspaces, cemeteries, and parks are all shown, including a Jewish Cemetery. Railroads are mapped. Brooklyn Village is on the outskirts of the city.

Detailed Condition:

Minor toning around edges.
