Description:

Nice original antique map of South Carolina, showing the state's county-by-county division and the state's railroads. This two-sheet map was published by Rand McNally in 1896 in Chicago.

Detail is impressive, with many cities and towns shown. Railroad lines are the focus and are all named. A list in the lower right enumerates all the active railroads in the state, while cities are locatable using an index to the left of the map.

Detailed Condition:
Minor toning around edges.
