Description:

Original antique map of Palestine, published by Christoph Wiegell in Amsterdam. The map shows the Holy Land in detail, with pictorially depicted topography and many important Biblical and modern cities and towns shown.

The map is divided into the regions of Samaria, Galilee, and Judea. The map includes a strange decorative cartouche of a reclining man in the ruins of a classical edifice, typical of this period of mapmaking. This map was originally published in Weigel's work on Geographia Antiqua, edited by D. Kohler.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color. Manuscript underlining.
