Description:

Finel old color example of the Covens & Mortier edition of Philippe de la Rue's map of the Holy Land.

Based upon the writings of the Old Testament (Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy), the map shows Holy Land at the time of Abraham and Moses, including the path traveled by Moses and the Israelites from Egypt, across the Red Sea and ultimately to the banks of the Jordan River, which were crossed by the Israelites by Joshua, with Moses remaining on the east side of the Jordan, according to the Old Testament.

The smaller inset map hshows the path traveled by Abraham to Canaan, according to the Book of Genesis.
