Description:

Nice example of this scarce historical map of the Holy Land, showing the land promised to Abraham. The map was published in France by de Vaugondy in 1743.

The main map includes a detailed look at the Holy Land, divided according to the ownership of the Twelve Tribes. The detail is nice, with many mountains, cities, and Holy Sites developed throughout.

In the upper left an inset shows the "Carte des Voyages d'Abraham faits par l'ordre de Dieu, en Asie et en Egypte" or the travels of Abraham throughout Egypt and the Middle East. The map shows the Garden of Eden.

Another inset in the lower left shows the positions of the Twelve Tribes around the Temple.

There is an illustration of the Ark of the Covenant in the lower-right corner.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color in outline. Scant fold toning. Very minor area of loss and reinstatement.
