Description:

Rare late (1834) state of Indiana from Finley's General Atlas.

The map is colored by counties and showing towns, roads, rivers, mountains and other geographical features.

Several counties in Northern Indiana are now shown, including Adams, Cass, Clinton, Warren, Carroll, Tipton, Boone, Delaware, Fountain, Elkhart and St. Joseph.

Most of the northern portion of the territory is Indian lands.

An interesting map of Indiana, at a period of accelerated exploration and settlement in the state.
