Description:

Scarce Rand McNally map of North Carolina, showing the state in extensive detail. This nice double-page map is one of the largest maps of the state to have appeared in a 19th-century American commercial atlas.

Detail is extensive, with cities, railroads, county lines, islands, and more shown. A list in the lower right enumerates all of the railroads active in the state. An inset in the lower left shows the westernmost part of the state.
