Description:

Finely colored example of Bowen's detailed map of the Carolinas, Georgia and most of Florida, extending west to the Country of the Cherokees and French Louisiana.

The map is highly detailed and shows many towns, forts, Indian tribes, mountains, rivers, lakes, etc. Interesting annotation on the Cherokee Indians, a warlike nation of Indians, which have joined in Alliance with the British Colonies and serve as a powerful defensive barrier against the French & Spanish controlled regions to the west.

A marvelous bit of pro-settlement propaganda encouraging emigration to the region on the eve of the French & Indian War.
