Description:

Fine example of Coronelli's globe gore of Central America and its environs.

Striking globe gore, extending from the Gulf of Mexico, the Yucatan, and Cuba in the north, to Guatemala and Northern Colombia in the south, centered on Lake Nicaragua.

A marvelous dark impression, with Italian text below and on the verso, describing the region.

Coronelli's globe gores are among the more famous and collectible of all 17th Century globe gores.
