Description:

Showing the Historical Configuration of the Northwest Territoires

Rand McNally's enlarged atlas map of Canada's Northwest Territories particularly focusing on the region's railroads and the Trans-Canada railway. This map was published in 1896.

Many cities and towns are named throughout. Most of Alberta appears up to the southern Rocky Mountains, and the historical province of Assiniboia is shown south of Saskatchewan. Populations of cities are shown next to the map. Indian reservations are shown.
