Description:

An attractive example of the 1912 Twin City Lines route map published under the auspices of A.W. Warnock.

The pamphlet was issued to promote the routes of the Twin Cities Lines electric streetcar company, which ran between Stillwater and Tonka Bay, through extensive networks in Minneapolis and Saint Paul. All of this is represented in a pleasing color-printed map of the area. Some boat routes (namely on Lake Minnetonka) are illustrated as well.

The map names many communities on Lake Minnetonka and in the western suburbs, such as Wayzata, Minnetonka Beach, Deephaven, Excelsior, Hopkins, St. Louis Park, etc.

The Twin Cities system of parks is highlighted in green.

Detailed Condition:

Folding pamphlets printed on both sides.
