Description:

Original antique map of North Dakota, showing the state in fine detail and published in Chicago in 1896.

This very detailed map divides the state according to county lines, which are very different from today, especially in the west of the map. Fort Berthold Indian Reservation is shown. Many towns, cities, railroads, and more are shown. Populations for all the major cities are given at the top of the map.

Detailed Condition:

Minor toning around edges.
