Description:

Scarce G.W. & C.B. Colton folding map of the State of New York issued in 1869.

The map belongs to a series of impressive state maps produced by the Coltons during the 1860s and '70s, which were larger in format and tended to be more vibrant and detailed than the standard offerings from other makers in the preceding era.

The map includes a table of county populations tracing them back to the census of 1840.

The key lists symbols for Townships, Villages & Post Offices, Post Roads, Rail Roads, Proposed Rail Roads, and Canals.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color by county. Folding map with original embossed covers. Some minor wear and toning at folds.
