Description:

Seperately-Issued Pocket Map, with Shipper's Guide of Tennesse

Nice original antique map of Kentucky and Tennessee, published by Rand McNally in Chicago at the turn of the 19th century.

The map names the cities, railroads, towns, and counties of the region. Railroads are listed in red adjacent to the titles, and chief cities appear to the left of the map. Detail extends into Indiana, Mississippi, the Carolinas, Ohio, the Virginias, and other states. The populations of major cities in the two states are listed to the left of the map.

The map is accompanied by a shipper's guide to Tennessee, detailing the information needed to transport goods in that state.
