Description:

With Early Subway Lines.

Scarce separately-published antique map of New York City, showing Manhattan and surrounding boroughs in magnificent detail. This map was issued by Rand McNally in Chicago as part of their pocket map series.

The map centers on Midtown and Central Park and shows subway lines, elevated lines, railroads, and ferries throughout the city. In addition, all roads and streets are named. The neighborhoods of Brooklyn and Queens are named. Detail extends slightly into New Jersey.

A highly detailed inset in the upper right shows Greater New York. This shows just how far the city's
