Description:

Nice example of Hartmann Schedel's incunable view of Crakow from the Latin edition of Schedel's Liber Chronicum, perhaps the single most influential secular illustrated book of the 15th Century and one of the landmark printed works of the 15th Century.

Schedel's view of Crackow is one of the earliest obtainable views of the City and realistically the only large format 15th Century illustration of the city available to collectors. The Latin edition preceded the German edition to market and is therefore regarded as the first edition. The position of the view in the German edition was also changed, so that the view is above the text in the German edition, whereas the view was below the text in the Latin edition.
