Map Maker: Grison's Steak House
Date: 1956
Place: San Francisco
Color: Color
Condition: VG
Size: 21.75 x 17 inches
Price: $ 295.00

Description:

Fine piece of San Francisco ephemera, mapping the layout of the city and advertising the legendary, but now-defunct Grison's Steak and Chicken House on Van Ness and Pacific Avenue in Pacific Heights.

The pictorial map shows San Francisco in detail, with its major monuments and places of interest depicted. To the left of the map is a list of potential ways to spend time in San Francisco. The verso includes two additional maps, one street map of the downtown area and one map of the greater Bay Area, extending to Tahoe.

Detailed Condition:

Folding map. Printed both sides. Minor toning.
