Description:

A Truly Unusual Grouping

Interesting set of 4 joined maps, published in Paris by Clouet.

Clouet's maps of the 4 continents (America being a single continent) was first issued in 1764, with revised editions published until the 1780s. The set did not appear in a regularly published atlas and, individually, are scarce on the market.

The present set was apparently joined by an earlier owner for display, with evidence of pin holes and minor discoloration.

While it is difficult to know how long the set of 4 maps have been joined, we considered the presentation worthy of preserving.

Detailed Condition:

4 sheets, joined. Toned, with some soiling. Discoloration and pin holes from an early mounting on a wall.
