Description:

Fine example of this German edition of Cook's explorations along the northwest coast of America and northeast coast of Asia, based upon the original work by Lieutenant Henry Roberts.

The map includes excellent detail in the Behring Straits, with extensive notes on soundings. Cook's tracks are shown with dates and notes describe other explorers, including Bodega and Mackenzie's tracks in Canada and the Arctic Circle.

Information derived from Hearn and others exploring the Northwest Passage and the western extremities of Hudson Bay, by land and sea, are also included.

This map was published by Franz Anton Schraembl in Vienna in 1788.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand color, in outline. Minor uneven toning. Small dampstain in rightmost margin.
