Description:

One of Budapest's Grandest Traffic Circuses Is Renamed After Hitler.

Plan of Kodály Körönd and Andrassy Avenue showing the Körönd renamed "Hitler-Ter."

The plat depicts the old houses and apartments located in the triangular-shaped block between Andrassy, the Körönd, Benczúr, and Bajza Utca.

The Körönd is famous for its four statues on each corner of the circus, each depicting a different 16th- or 17th-century Hungarian national hero. During the Second World War, the circus was renamed by Hungary's fascist leaders for the German dictator.

Detailed Condition:

Old folds. Minor soiling.
