Description:

Entertaining 1970 poster map of Las Vegas, by artist Henry Hinton.

The strip is shown from the Hacienda to Fremont Street, with a wide array of period caricatures of Vegas tourists and locals.

The group of elderly male conventioners chasing scantily clad women in bathing suits from the Convention Center toward the strip captures the essence of the Vegas tourism message, circa 1970.

The image captures the essence of Las Vegas one year before the publication of Hunter Thompson's classic Fear & Loathing in Las Vegas.
