Description:

This 1995 pictorial map of Silicon Valley was created by City Design of San Ramon, California. The map, which also includes a calendar for 1996, features a colorful and detailed illustration of the region, highlighting various landmarks and notable companies. The map includes a number of labels for the featured companies, such as TCI Cablevision, Oracle, Bay Networks, and Hewlett Packard.

Overall, the map offers an interesting update to the Silicon Valley pictorial maps that were issued from the early 1980s.

See Rumsey Collection 10935 for another Silicon Valley map published in the same format and same time, but by Rola Design.
