Description:

Early map of the United States, showing the region shortly after the Adams Onis Treaty of 1819.

Arkansas Territory is shown in its "double wide" configuration, characteristic of the 1820s. Wisconsin Territory appears on the map. The territorial name began appearing about 1835.

A large section is called "Western States", extending to the Rocky Mountains and showing the cartographic details reminiscent of the 1830s.
