Description:

Fine late-17th-century etching showing a stormy naval scene in the Low Country style.

The image shows one surviving ship, with several others sinking nearby. Several survivors stand on a distant island, while, closer to the viewer, a lone seaman rows his lifeboat.

The image appears to be signed "YCD," but it may also represent "YD," "YS," or "YF."

Detailed Condition:

Mounted on card. Minor tears to lower right portion of the card and sheet, not affecting image. Trimmed unevenly to paper on the left.
