Description:

Rare early Walt Disney map of the United States, issued by Standard Oil Company of California, in connection with the Golden Gate Exposition of 1939.

Decorative promotional sponsored by Standard Oil Company of California and Travel Tykes Weekly Magazine. The map is filled with vignettes in each of the states and provinces of Canada, showing Mickey Mouse and Donald Duck engaged in activities reflective of the tourism or indigenous commerce or industry of the state.

Outside the map image, there are places to paste cards cut from the Travel Tykes Weekly Magazine put out by Standard.

The verso shows Mickey and Donald at the Fair, featuring vignettes on the major attractions of the Golden Gate Exposition.

The map is apparently quite rare on the market.
