Description:

This large wall map is titled "Official Map of the City of St. Louis," which represents the city as established by the City Charter of 1876. The map was prepared under the direction of Frank J. McDevitt, the Director of Streets and Sewers in 1939, with a scale of 1,320 feet to one inch. The map is oriented with North at the upper right and provides a detailed layout of the city's streets, public spaces, and infrastructure.

A lengthy street index can be found in the lower right and left corners of the map.
