Description:

Fine Map of the Ottoman Empire from the Cloppenburg Edition of the Mercator-Hondius Atlas Minor

Striking example of this map of the Ottoman Empire, showing their territories in the Balkans, Anatolia, the Levant, the Arabian Peninsula, and North Africa.

The border of the Ottoman Empire was one of the largest land empires in history. Cities and towns are labeled, with the largest cities marked with the characteristic small building symbol that was used throughout the atlas. Mountains and hills are included, especially on the Arabian Peninsula.
