Description:

Highly sought after group of maps from Chatelain's 7 Volume Atlas Historique. Includes 8 maps, each of which would be highly coveted as a separate map. The maps include 1) a map of the Carolinas, 2) a map of the Chesapeake, 3) Canada and New England, 4) New England and New York, 5) Bermuda, 6) Barbados 7) Jamaica and 8) Florida, the Gulf Coast, Mexico, Central America and the Caribbean, along with substantial explanatory text. Each of the maps is extremely detailed, such that they would price out individually in the $250 to $500 range, if issued separately. This fact accounts for the remarkable scarcity of this map, which has not appeared in the Jolly Price Guide for a number of years. An essential map for Americana map collectors, representing a rare opportunity to buy such a fine compilation of early 18th Century regional American maps. Minor fold split, else a very attractive example.
