Description:

Rare late edition of this striking map of Asia, first issued by Hubert Jaillot.

The map extends as far east as New Guinea and "Terre Iesso" and west to Eastern Europe and the Nile River. The map has been significantly revised and updated, especially in the area of Japan, Korea and the regions to the north.

First issued in 1674, this two-sheet map of Asia provides a highly detailed picture of the continent, based upon the geographical compilations and work of Nicolas Sanson which remained unpublished at the time of his death.
