Description:

Rare 1846 edition of T.G. Bradford's large map of Louisiana.

The map is hand colored by Parishes, and shows towns, forts, lakes, rivers, and some of the very earliest railroad lines in the South.

Many of the early western and northern parishes have not yet been formed, and the area is dominated by massive Opelousas, Rapides, Natchitoches, Claiborne and Ouachita Parishes.
